Safety Information

About Photosensitive Seizures

A very small percentage of people may experience a seizure when exposed to certain visual images, including flashing lights or patterns that may appear in video games. Even people who have no history of seizures or epilepsy may have an undiagnosed condition that can cause these "photosensitive epileptic seizures" while watching video games.

These seizures may have a variety of symptoms including: lightheadedness, altered vision, eye or face twitching, jerking or shaking of arms or legs, disorientation, confusion, or momentary loss of awareness. Seizures may also cause loss of consciousness or convulsions that can lead to injury from falling down or striking nearby objects.

Immediately stop playing and consult a doctor if you experience any of these symptoms. Parents should watch for or ask their children about the above symptoms—children and teenagers are more likely than adults to experience these seizures.

The risk of photosensitive epileptic seizures may be reduced by sitting farther from the television screen, using a smaller television screen, playing in a well-lit room, and not playing when you are drowsy or fatigued.

If you or any of your relatives have a history of seizures or epilepsy, consult a doctor before playing.

Other Important Health and Safety Information

The Xbox® Instruction Manual contains important health and safety information that you should read and understand before using this software.

Avoid Damage to Your Television

Do not use with certain televisions. Some televisions, especially front- or rear-projection types, can be damaged if any video games, including Xbox games, are played on them. Static images presented during the normal course of game play may "burn in" to the screen, causing a permanent shadow of the static image to appear at all times, even when video games are not being played. Similar damage may occur from static images created when placing a video game on hold or pause. Consult your television owner's manual to determine if video games can be played safely on your set. If you are unable to find this information in the owner's manual, contact your television dealer or the manufacturer to determine if video games can be played safely on your set.

GAMEPLAY TIPS

Drug Wars: This is the term that loosely describes the open-world cocaine economy you will exploit to make it to the top again. Keep your eyes on the prize; make deals and do business missions often!

Turfs: You need to complete 100% of a turf to unlock the next one. You can only do Front Missions in unlocked turfs, but you are free to roam around and do Business Missions in locked turfs.

Fronts: While all front owners are interested in selling their business to you, they all seem to have one gang or another on their backs. Be prepared for a variety of missions that help keep these fronts from going under. There are often gun vendors near fronts if you want to pack heat in a hurry.

Storehouses: Though teeming with thugs, these big warehouses will be ripe for the taking as you take over the land surrounding them. Don't forget to stock up on big guns and massive ammo before you bust through that gate!

Shooting: You can choose whether to lock onto your targets or aim manually, you will get more points for manually aimed skill-shots, but locking on is much easier to pull off. A combination of the two aiming styles will yield the best results: manually aim at swarms of enemies with automatic weapons, then lock onto stragglers for the efficient kill.

Blind Rage: No one can flip the fuck out like Tony can. As if greatly enhanced accuracy and increased movement speed aren't enough, you also become temporarily invincible AND gain health back for every kill you make. Well-timed use of blind rage can get you through many a tough spot.

Intimidation: Become a master of the Intimidation Meter. Confidence in getting good scores is key. Successful intimidations can gain you balls, get you the best deals on drugs, minimize the laundering rate at the bank, and help you talk the cops out of confiscating your dirty cash and cocaine!

Taunting: There is only one thing better than spitting Tony's one-liners at everyone you see: getting balls points for taunting a fool after you shot his ass! There is no better way to enable Blind Rage than a string of taunt-combos.

Use your Exotics: Nothing beats a fast car delivered anywhere, any time. So buy a couple fast cars early on, they will be worth their weight in gold. It is also recommended to buy the Limo and Float Plane as soon as you can, they offer instant travel between owned fronts and docks, respectively. As the coffers begin to fill, start blowing some cash to renovate and decorate your mansion. Every item you buy can be placed in your mansion AND gives you reputation points for the purchase!

Femme Fatales: There are 5 women in the game that will diss Tony hardcore when he first approaches them. Remember to go back to them later in the game when your reputation has grown. Who knows, maybe they will want to have some ice cream at your place...

Gang Nests: Each Turf in Miami has a number of Gang Nests. Tony gets reputation points and turf percentage points for clearing out all the gang members in a nest. However, many of these nests are very difficult to clear out—and Tony can easily gain control of each turf by other means—so don't bother spending too much time on difficult Gang Nests.

Execution moves: If Tony locks on to an enemy with the L button and fires at very close range, he will perform an execution move. There are different moves for each weapon type. Try it out!
