Cluedo CHRONICLES

The cover art is set within a circular frame on a dark, textured background. Inside the circle, a woman in a red dress stands on the right, looking towards a large revolver that floats in the center. The background of the circle shows a cityscape with a large dome and a ship on the water under a full moon. The title 'FATAL ILLUSION' is written in large, stylized yellow letters with a red outline at the bottom of the circle.

ALL THINGS ARE NOT AS THEY APPEAR...

Throughout the game, the gameplay screen always features three basic areas:

- Main Gameplay Area
- Main Menu Bar
- Inventory Bar

Important! To access the Main Menu Bar, move your cursor to the top of the screen. To access the Inventory Bar, move your cursor to the bottom of the screen. The appropriate bar will appear.

MAIN GAMEPLAY AREA

The Main Gameplay Area is your view into the Cluedo Chronicles world. Move your cursor around and explore. As you play, you will encounter movies and animations. To bypass a movie or animation, simply click your mouse.

Hint: The in-game movies and animations may or may not contain clues.

Hotspots

As your cursor moves around the Main Gameplay Area, you will see it change in appearance.

A magnifying glass means you've discovered something of interest. Click on the object to learn more.

A large arrow means you can move in the direction the arrow is pointing.

The Characters/Suspects

The most intriguing part of the Cluedo Chronicles world is the characters. As you explore the game environment, you'll meet classic Cluedo favourites like Miss Scarlett and Col. Mustard. However, you'll also discover several new people with whom you may want to mingle. Don't be shy.

Items

Sometimes you'll find an object or cluedo that you can pick up by simply clicking on it. The item will then appear in your Inventory Bar at the bottom of the screen. What you can learn from these objects or do with these objects is for you to discover...

Puzzles

As you make your way through the game, you will encounter a variety of tricky challenges. You must get past these challenges in order to advance in the game.

Tip: Make sure you interview as many people as you can, and map out the areas you visit. All of the puzzle answers are in the game! If all else fails, remember the hints.

MAIN MENU BAR

From the Main Menu Bar at the top of the screen, select from any of the following:

New Game – Click here to begin an entirely new game.

Save Game – Click here to save the game you are currently playing.

Preferences – Click here if you want to adjust the game settings.

INVENTORY BAR

Notepad

As you play the game you will discover clues and items that you can pick up and place in your Inventory Bar. Some items can be combined with others to make new items. Left-click on an item to pick it up. Right-click for a closer inspection.

Note: If you have more items that can be displayed in your inventory, click on the scroll arrows to access the other items.

On the outside edge of the Inventory Bar is the Notepad icon.

Notepad

Your notepad is used for two purposes. First, it is used to automatically log any important information. As you interview people and investigate, statements will appear in your notepad for you to recall as you play the game. Whenever you are not interviewing a character, left-click on the notepad icon to access the notes. Click on the arrow buttons at the bottom of the pad to scroll through the pages.

The notepad is also used to conduct interviews with the other characters. When you click on a character, your notepad will open up. Select the question you would like to ask by clicking on the empty box next to an entry. A red checkmark will appear and a question will then appear on-screen. Click on the question to ask it.

Note: Grey checkmarks indicate questions that you have already asked. You may, however, ask them again. Who knows, someone may change his/her story!

HINTS

Sometimes you need a little hint to move you along or to just confirm what you already knew. Hints come in three stages: A riddle, then a suggestion, and finally... the answer.
