Europe

Children from all over Europe are visiting some famous places in their own country.
Read the text and join each sentence to the picture it describes.

John is British. He is walking over the River Thames on London Bridge.

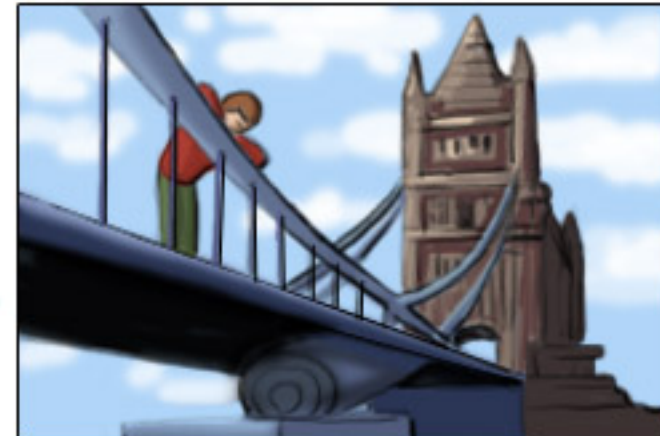

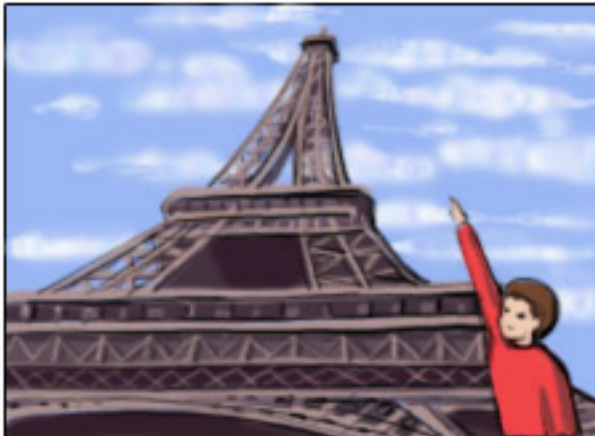

Eline is Belgian. She is admiring the Atomium.

Michel is French. He has been up to the third floor of the Eiffel Tower.

Rocco is Italian. He is admiring the leaning Tower of Pisa.

Hilde is Dutch. She is wandering along the canals.

Miriam is Irish. She is counting the sheep in a forest near Ennis.

Flags

Here are the names and flags of some of the European countries.

Some flags are not coloured. It is up to you to colour them with the help of these clues.

Belgium and Germany use the same colours on their flags.

On one the stripes are arranged vertically, on the other they are arranged horizontally.

On the Belgian flag, the darkest colour is the first stripe. The other colours swap round.

France and Luxembourg share the same three colours, but the stripes are in different directions.

To find the order for the French flag, turn Luxembourg's one quarter turn clockwise.

Finland shares its colours with Greece. Most of Finland's flag is white.
