BOOB TUBE BLUES

It's the end of another fine TV season and Timmy Turner can't wait to watch the season finale of Crash Nebula. So imagine his frustration when his TV goes Kablooeey! Lucky for him he's got Cosmo and Wanda, the best fairy godparents a boy could have, to set things right with the wave of a wand. But what's this? Their powers aren't working?

It's off to Fairy World for some answers where Timmy learns that someone has run off with the all-powerful Royal Jewel. It seems that none of the fairies can use their magic, leading Jorgen von Strangle to believe that the jewel has fallen into the wrong hands. Luckily, there is one thing strong enough to counteract the effects of the missing jewel: the Fairyversary muffin! Armed with the muffin recipe, Timmy sets out to gather the ingredients with the hope that the muffin will help change things back to normal.

And all because he can't miss the season finale of Crash Nebula! The things a kid will do for television!

THE TEN LABORS OF TIMMY TURNER

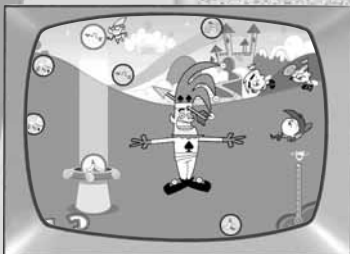

It's up to you to help Timmy save Fairy World and get the TV fixed in time for the Crash Nebula finale. Timmy's got ten missions to complete in order to save TV... I mean, save the day!

FAIRLY DISASTROUS

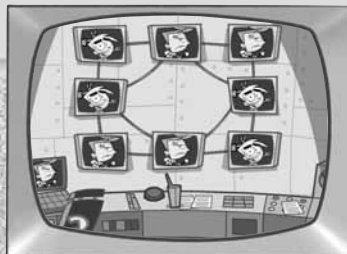

Things are pretty topsy-turvy in Fairy World, even more than usual! All of the playing cards have been stripped of their suits. Help Timmy direct the flow of suits to the correct playing cards by clicking on the different tube pieces. Be sure to watch out for that pesky cow at the bottom of the screen, though. It'll switch the positions of the cards and you'll have to re-direct the suit flow! Direct the flow of suits over the Cow Head to freeze the cow in her tracks. When the cards have been filled with the proper suit, they'll fall down to create a bridge to the Fairy World Castle. Cosmo and Wanda need to get to the castle in order to find out why their wands aren't working.

IS THAT FUNNY OR WHAT?

Being funny isn't easy. If it were, then Quince, the Royal Jester, wouldn't need your help. Help him keep his audience laughing and he'll tell you everything he knows about the strange events happening in Fairy World. Joke icons will drop from the sky and light up after they fall into a hat at the bottom of the screen. Other icons will also appear outside of the hat. Click on the icon that matches the one in the hat to help Quince perform his funny moves.

JORGEN'S TV TROUBLE

Timmy and his fairy godparents turn to the muscular Jorgen von Strangle to help them figure out who's behind the missing Royal Jewel. You'll have to help Jorgen with his TV trouble so that he can give you clues about the jewel thief. Your goal is to get all of Jorgen's TVs to show the same image as the one that appears on the laptop screen. Click on each TV to change the image. It's not as easy as it looks, though. Some of the TVs are connected and clicking on one may change the screen on another!

TIMMY'S WISHING STAR CHALLENGE

With Cosmo and Wanda's wands on the fritz, Timmy needs wishing stars to fuel his wishes! Use the directional arrows or mouse to guide Timmy through the Fairy World Trainatorium to collect fifty wishing stars. Use the Spacebar or left mouse click to jump and be sure to avoid obstacles. If Timmy runs into an object or falls off the platform, he'll lose one of his three turns.

APE ESCAPE

In order to bake the Fairyversary Muffin and counteract the effects of the missing jewel, you'll have to help Timmy gather the ingredients. Unfortunately, Timmy's mom has taken the flour to bake banana bread. But wait, it gets worse! Timmy's mom has been captured by the King Ape. Help Timmy climb a giant wall and avoid the banana peels tossed by angry monkeys. It's a tricky climb, but it's the only way to save mom and get the flour!

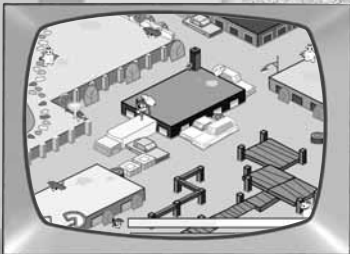

VICKY STRIKES BACK

Icky Vicky has run off with the Mooncalf Milk that Timmy needs to bake the Fairyversary Muffin and is plotting to destroy Earth with her evil babysitter ray! Steer Timmy through an invisible maze by lighting his path with his gamma suit. Here's the catch: the gamma suit runs on batteries that will eventually run out. You'll have to collect the extra batteries in the maze and also find a jet pack to help you cross dangerous chasms. Remember to watch out for laser beams on your quest to thwart Vicky's dastardly plans and claim the Mooncalf Milk.

TAKE IT ON THE CHIN

Timmy must dive into the pages of a Crimson Chin comic book and defeat the evil villain H2Olga for the phoenix egg he needs to bake the magic muffin. Help Timmy as Cleft, the Boy-Chin Wonder, to bounce through the water-logged streets of Chincinnati on the Pogo Stick of Justice. You'll also use the Crimson Wing to glide across larger bodies of water. Look out for H2Olga's minions, though. They love to lob water balls in your direction. Pickup a freeze ray to stop them in their tracks!

DAD'S DREAM

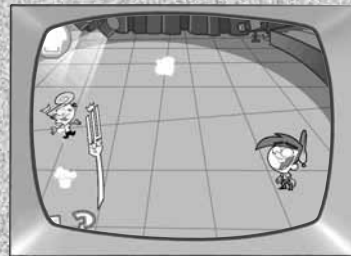

Help Timmy as he slips inside of Dad's dream to retrieve the ingredient for the Fairyversary Muffin: sugar! So what does a man who invents faulty gadgets dream about? Business suits, of course! Hideous, boy-eating business suits! Pick up light bulbs and use them to attract moths to eat the suits. Be careful not to attract too many moths, though. They'll slow Timmy down. You can left-click the mouse to turn off the bulb and the moths will begin to disappear. Keep an eye out for the magnet ray to help open closed doors!

SHADOW TV

With all of the ingredients for the Fairyversary Muffin finally in Timmy's hands, it's time to bake! No problem, but the muffin needs to cool before Timmy can use it. Meanwhile, Timmy, Cosmo and Wanda are led to the Dimmsdale TV station, where the sinister shadow behind the missing jewel is revealed at last. It's the final showdown. Help Timmy stall the Shadow while the muffin cools. As the camera lights in the station change color, jump on the matching colored buttons on the floor. This will stun the Shadow giving Timmy a chance to kick him and bring him down at last! But like any bad guy, he won't go down without a fight. Be sure to avoid the balls of darkness he's bound to throw in Timmy's direction.

TIMMY'S MUFFIN TOSS

All that's left for Timmy to do is eat the Fairyversary Muffin to restore Cosmo and Wanda's powers and wish everything back to normal again! As Timmy shuffles around the screen, use the directional arrows or mouse to bend the fork up and down. Then use the Spacebar or left mouse click to release the muffin morsel from the tip of the fork. Time and aim the shot so that the muffin lands right in Timmy's mouth. Keep an eye out for the items

ITEMS

COW HEAD

Direct the flow of playing card suits over the cow head and it will freeze the cow in the Fairly Disastrous level and stop her from switching cards.

WISHING STAR

Collect wishing stars to fuel your wishes. It's the only magic you've got since Cosmo and Wanda's wands aren't working.

BANANA

Collect bananas and toss them at monkeys to keep them from throwing banana peels at you.

MONKEY WRENCH

Use this handy tool to open gates!

BATTERY

It's the ultimate self-contained power source! Use batteries to power your gamma suit.

JET PACK

3...2...1... Liftoff! The jet pack helps you cross wide chasms.

FREEZE RAY

Thwart H2Olgas' evil minions with the freeze ray. It's guaranteed to stop anything in its path, cold, but only for a limited time.

CRIMSON WING

This glider helps Timmy soar over the soggy streets of Chincinnati.

LIGHT BULB

The light bulb is a bright idea when it comes to attracting moths in Dad's Dream.

MAGNET RAY

Use this gadget in Dad's Dream to open and close doors.

AIR HORN

The air horn makes a loud, startling noise designed to defeat any sinister business suits lurking nearby.

YOUR FRIENDS AND FAIRIES

TIMMY TURNER

Timmy's just your average kid, and like all average kids he's got fairy godparents. Wait... you mean you don't have fairy godparents? Come to think of it, neither do I! So maybe Timmy's not so average. I mean, he's got a couple of fairies granting him wishes for crying out loud! Well, I guess you can't hold it against him. He needs all the help he can get if he wants to bake the Fairyversary Muffin, find the missing jewel and get his TV working in time for the Crash Nebula season finale.

WANDA

One half of Timmy's dynamic fairy duo, Wanda's the one that Timmy and Cosmo turn to when they've managed to get themselves in a jam. She's the lighthearted voice of reason, and while that reason doesn't always make sense, she never fails to help Timmy pull through.

COSMO

The other half of the fairly odd twosome, Cosmo's no brainiac, but he's got a great sense of humor and the best of intentions. So what if his magic sometimes goes awry?

VICKY

From day one, Timmy's evil baby sitter has been nothing but trouble, and it only gets worse when she runs off with Timmy's Mooncalf Milk and plots to let loose her dreaded babysitter ray on Planet Earth. Can Timmy put a stop to her dastardly plans?

JORGEN VON STRANGLE

Jorgen is the closest thing Fairy World has to a drill sergeant! He's the feared training instructor whose mission in life is to whip puny fairies into shape. His muscles may be big, but his ego's even bigger. Jorgen uses his muscular intellect to help tiny Timmy Turner on his quest, which is a welcome change since he usually blames Timmy for anything and everything that goes wrong.

CHAMBERLAIN

The chamberlain has faithfully served the Fairy King and Queen, Oberon and Titania, for years. He's completely beyond suspicion. I mean, look at his honest face, his white curling beard. He wouldn't harm a fly.
